

Illustrator's Challenge: Creating the Art for THE CATS IN KRASINSKI SQUARE

This picture book for older readers is set in German-occupied Warsaw during WWII. The protagonist, a young Jewish girl passing as a Gentile, plays an important part in Resistance efforts to help Jews still trapped behind the Ghetto walls. This PowerPoint program shows the creation of the art for this story from beginning to end, covering some of the challenges involved, including research, choice of media and style, conveying emotion and atmosphere, introducing hope in the midst of a disturbing theme.

Adaptable for any audience: children grades 5-6 and up, adults, or professionals

